

Bargains Galore Now Offering Electronics Recycling

WAUPUN – Area residents will be able to recycle outdated and unwanted electronics at Bargains Galore Thrift Store, 810 W. Main St., through a new partnership with Vintage Tech Recyclers.

All items are free to drop-off. Also, all personal data is guaranteed to be safely and securely destroyed through Bargains Galore's partnership with Vintage Tech Recyclers.

"Electronics recycling is a service that our community needs and we're excited to offer a solution for this issue," said Brenda Hofman, store manager. "We are excited to launch this partnership with Vintage Tech Recyclers."

Karrie Gibson, founder and president of Vintage Tech Recyclers said, "We are very excited to partner with Bargains Galore to provide this responsible electronic recycling program for the Waupun and surrounding communities. This will be a great solution for the residents in this community."

The items that will be accepted for recycling include: computers, laptops, monitors, LCD's, cell phones, printers, scanners, modems, CD drives, cables, keyboards, mice, TV's, VCR's, DVD players, camcorders, cameras, game players and joysticks; telephones, pagers, answering machines, typewriters, calculators, adding machines, fax machines, copiers and postage meters.

Former Green Bay Packer LeRoy Butler to visit Waupun

WAUPUN — LeRoy Butler, inventor of the Lambeau Leap, will be visiting Rock River Intermediate School, 451 E. Spring St., on Wednesday, Feb. 29. Students and staff will be celebrating "Learning, Leaping, and Lunching with LeRoy." Plans include Butler visiting students in their classrooms in the morning, interacting with students during their lunch recess and making presentations on bullying to all students. That afternoon, parents and fans are welcome to come and see Butler speak. Admission is free and he'll be in the large gym from 12:45 to 3 p.m. The school will be selling LeRoy's autographed book, "The LeRoy Butler Story, for $25." All of the proceeds from sale of the book will go to the Breast Cancer Foundation.

Pancake Breakfast at Laconia High School March 4

ROSENDALE — Members of the Fond du Lac County 4-H Dairy Judging Team are holding a Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, March 4, from 8 a.m. to noon at Laconia High School in Rosendale. The menu includes pancakes, sausage links, cheese, donut holes, bananas, milk and coffee. The cost is $6 for adults and is free for children 5 years old and younger. A bucket drawing will feature dozens of items including a signed Packer football, 40 free bowling games and $40 off food at Generations Lanes in Eldorado; a framed Bonnie Mohr print; a one-night's stay at the Holiday Inn in Fond du Lac; a man's watch valued at $100 from CW Smith Jewelers; a one-night stay at Comfort Suites in Ripon; a Pampered Chef gift basket valued at $100, and much more. Proceeds from the fundraiser will benefit the Fond du Lac County 4-H Dairy Judging Team who will be attending the international dairy judging competition in Scotland June 20 to July 3.
